Julie Raines attended the University of Tennessee and presently serves as the Chairman of the Board of her family business, Fischer Lime and Cement Company, which was founded in 1906. In addition, she operates Four Seasons as a consultant to Carlisle Collection, Ltd.

Julie has, throughout her life, been extremely active in volunteer and charitable activities. She is a past board member of the Woman's Guild of the Knoxville Symphony. She has been a member of the Junior League in Knoxville and Memphis serving on the executive board in Knoxville and holding various board positions in Memphis.

She co-chaired the 1994 Junior League Crystal Ball and was named Sustainer of the Year by the Memphis Junior League for her efforts.

In 1987, she served as co-chairman of volunteers for the Wonders exhibit of Ramesses, after which she was recognized as Volunteer of the Year by the Volunteer Center of the City of Memphis. Julie served as the President of the Board of the Memphis Botanic Garden in 1995-96 during the construction of the Four Million Dollar Visitor's Center and Hardin Hall. She continues to serve on the Board at this time.

She was elected to the Board of the Metropolitan Interfaith Association in 1995 and in 2000 was elected Chairman of the Board and serves in this capacity now and during the multi-million dollar renovation of its headquarters. In 1998, Julie was appointed as a member of the Board of the Memphis Redbirds Foundation. She is a former member of the Board of Visitors of the University of Memphis.

Julie is married to Jim Raines, a partner in the law firm of Glankler Brown. She has three children and two granddaughters and is a member of Idlewild Presbyterian Church.
